SANTA CLAUS IS COMING TO TOWN: FIRETRUCK SANTA, THAT IS...

The Town of Plainfield is working with the Plainfield Fire Territory and the Plainfield Parks & Recreation Department to bring Santa Claus to all of the young—and old—boys and girls of Plainfield this year. Beginning Wednesday, December 8th, Plainfield Santa will begin his designated route at 6pm each night for two weeks, excluding Sundays, Mondays, and Tuesdays.

Residents are encouraged to look at the route map to see which day Santa will be in their neighborhood. If Santa is not scheduled to pass their home, they may park along the route to wave to Jolly Ole' St. Nick. A live Santa tracker will be provided each day on the Plainfield Fire Territory's Facebook page for residents to see when Santa is approaching their home.

Santa will stay in the fire engine and wave from the passenger seat.

In addition, Main Street Plainfield, Inc. has also installed a mailbox for kids to drop off letters to Santa on Main Street, next to the First National Bank. The Plainfield Indiana Kiwanis Club will be personally responding to letters on behalf of Santa Claus.

A small town with big city amenities!

TOWN OF PLAINFIELD GOLF CART ORDINANCE
