SECTION 2. PROCEDURES FOR VIOLATIONS

A person charged with an ordinance violation, and said ordinance is included within the schedule set forth in Section 1, is entitled to a trial before a court as provided by law, unless the person waives the right to trial and enters an admission of the violation with the Bureau Clerk. Upon receipt of an admission, the Bureau Clerk shall assess and receive from the violator the amount prescribed by the schedule of civil penalties enumerated in Section 1.

If a person, charged with a violation of an ordinance included the schedule set forth in Section 1, wants to exercise the right to a trial, the person shall appear before the Bureau Clerk and enter a written denial.

If a person:

- (1) denies an ordinance violation under these provisions;
- (2) fails to satisfy a civil penalty assessed by the Bureau Clerk after having entered an admission of violation; or

- (3) fails to deny or admit the violation under these provisions;

the clerk shall report this fact to the Town Attorney having the responsibility to prosecute ordinance violation cases on behalf of the Town of Plainfield. Court proceedings against the person will then be initiated for the alleged ordinance violation. An action to enforce an ordinance shall be brought in accordance with Indiana law.

SECTION 3. CIVIL PENALTIES AND FINES

All sums collected by the Bureau Clerk as civil penalties for ordinance violations shall be accounted for and paid to the Clerk-Treasurer for the Town of Plainfield.

This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication according to law.

SAID ORDINANCE is hereby passed and adopted this 11 day of April, 2005.
